During the Follow up appointment, the Audiologist will also review the goals you identified in the individual management plan and agree how to address any needs that have not been met. The Audiologist will give you further information with regards to accessing the Audiology service for aftercare. The Audiologist will also signpost you to local services within your area that might be beneficial to you. If the Audiologist feels that you might find a second follow up appointment beneficial, this will be arranged for you and an appointment will be issued to you.
